Haku Baldwin Center to benefit from Ohana Fuels ‘Fuel up. Do good.’ program.

MAKAWAO – Haku Baldwin Center has been selected as the upcoming beneficiary of the Ohana Fuels ‘Fuel Up. Do Good.’ program. Ohana Fuels partners with nonprofit organizations that serve the needs of the local community, and donates a portion of every gallon of gasoline purchased at all Ohana Fuels stations in that community. During the months of July through September 2017, a portion of the sales at all Maui Ohana fuels locations will be donated to Haku Baldwin Center.

Haku Baldwin Center is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization that fosters therapeutic partnerships between people and animals with a range of therapeutic programs offered at no cost to the community, including: Animal-Assisted Therapy/Activities, Humane Animal Education, Therapeutic Horseback Riding, and Horsemanship for Veterans. Proceeds from the ‘Fuel up. Do good.’ campaign will benefit all of these programs, which are dedicated to children and adults with special needs, military veterans, seniors, and patients of all ages.

“We are excited to announce we will be partnering with Haku Baldwin Center as our next ‘Fuel up. Do good.’ beneficiary,” said Kimo Haynes, President of Hawaii Petroleum. “We value the exceptional work Haku Baldwin Center does to help our Ohana and we look forward to offering continued support in the community through our ‘Fuel up. Do good.’ program.”
